USD's IRVING SALOMON HONORED BY GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY

Immediate Release

San Diego, California

On Saturday, November 4, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., will honor Mr. Irving Salomon by conferring upon him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree. The citation reads in part "for service to the United States Government and Georgetown University." Mr. Salomon is a Trustee Emeritus of Georgetown University. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of San Diego, Atlanta University and the School of Theology at Claremont.

Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation, Children's Health Center, and the San Antonio de Pala Mission are among the many Boards served by Mr. Salomon. His service to the United States began with his military career where he served as a Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Army. He was Chairman of the United States Delegation to UNESCO Conference in Paris and later became the U.S. Delegate to the United Nations. He has represented the U.S. in good will trips to many foreign countries.

Salomon has authored several books, magazine and newspaper articles.

Mr. Salomon presently teaches two courses in political science at the University of San Diego: International Crisis and International Organizations.

Mrs. Salomon will accompany her husband to the ceremonies in Washington.

Georgetown University will give a dinner in his honor. The guest list will include such notables as Honorable and Mrs. William C. Foster, former Secretary of Defense, Honorable and Mrs. Cabot Lodge, Congressman and Mrs. Bob Wilson and the Honorable and Mrs. Hubert Humphrey.
